

I believe there is no greater infringement of my rights to provacy than to have telemarketers call on my telephone. The NJ Do Not Call legislation has silenced these intrusions and this law must be protected. Unsolicited intrusions of the form that we get on the telephone are disruptive to social life as I prefer to experience it with my family and friends. Surely I NEVER buy from people who contact me in unsolicited ways.